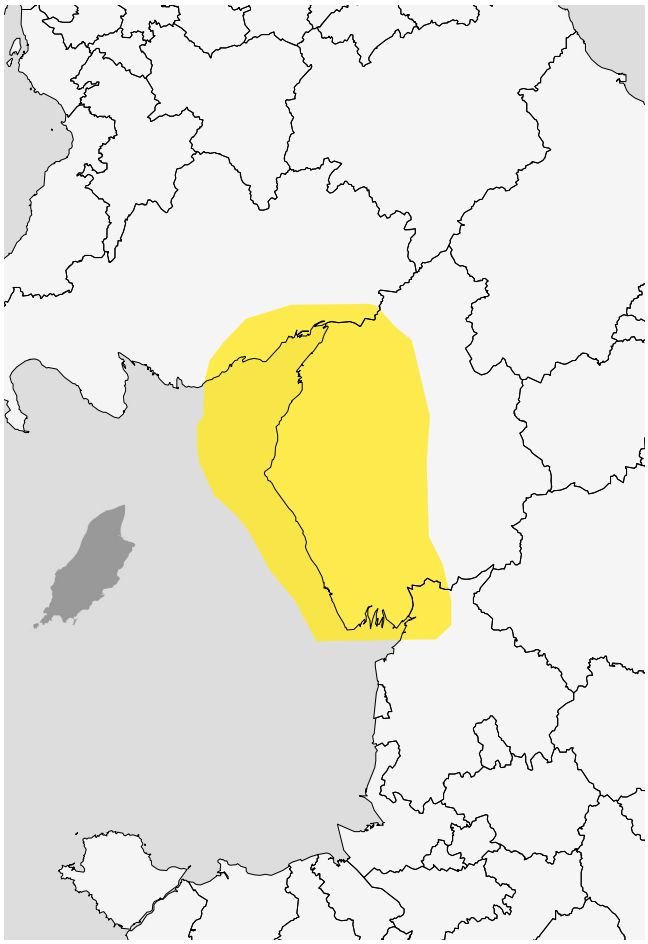
Yellow warning
Snow & Ice

Between
17:00 Fri 1 Dec 2023 and
23:59 Sat 2 Dec 2023



Further snow showers, locally heavy, combining with icy surfaces leading to some disruption to travel and infrastructure

What to expect

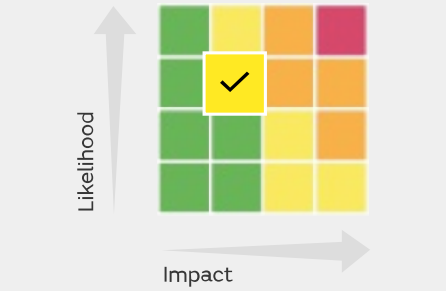
- Some roads and railways likely to be affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services
- Probably some icy patches on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths
- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces

Further details

Showers are expected to continue for much of the day, falling as rain near immediate coasts, but as sleet and snow inland. 1-3 cm of snow is possible at low levels, with 2-5 cm for higher ground. A few rumbles of thunder are also likely, mainly near coasts.

Icy conditions will be possible, especially later

What should I do?
Snowy, wintry weather can cause delays and make driving conditions dangerous.



✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts

Further Details (continued)

Keep yourself and others safe by planning your route, giving yourself extra time for your journey. Not needing to rush, reduces your risk of accidents, slips, and falls. Check for road closures or delays to public transport and amend plans if necessary.
If you need to make a journey on foot or by bike, try to use pavements along main roads which are likely to be less slippery.
If driving, make sure you have some essentials in your car in the event of any delays (e.g., warm clothing, food, water, a blanket, a torch, ice scraper/de icer, a warning triangle, high visibility vest and an in-car phone charger).
Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.
